WHY BIZBASH?

Year after year, event professionals look to push the envelope to provide a unique, on-brand experience for their guests in hopes of generating successful outcomes. This is where BizBash comes in...

BizBash is North America's #1 source for ideas, news, and resources for event and meeting professionals. With nearly 20 years as a trusted and loved brand, BizBash has the tools to spotlight North America's largest event markets (including New York, Los Angeles, Chicago, Washington DC, and other major cities), cultivate connections, and celebrate those who raise the bar in events.

Back for 2020, BizBash Best is the premier guide to discover the top new venues, suppliers, and destinations for meetings and events. This anticipated annual issue will also recognize Event Style Award winners, Event Planner's Choice Honorees in New York, and the latest ideas, trends, and resources transforming live experiences.

DECISION MAKERS & THE RIGHT AUDIENCE

This unbelievable opportunity could make your entire year. BizBash Best will be THE go-to publication for event professionals looking for new partners all year long.

WHAT DOES PARTICIPATION LOOK LIKE?

Why print...

BizBash Best will be referenced all year by planners and other event professionals and held onto for years. This is your chance to align your marketing message alongside award-winning and loved editorial.

AR Enhancement

BizBash is thrilled to include augmented reality-enabled advertising, available to all of our partners.*

Using the BizBash AR app, readers are able to hover over an ad or editorial story (marked with a special AR badge) to learn more about your brand. A contact and connect page will appear over the ads, allowing readers to call, email or visit your website, or watch your company video right from their mobile device.

The future of print advertising is here. This is your chance to stand out from the competition.

Packages & Solutions

BizBash Best 2020 will mail in February 2020 and land on the desks of event planners as they're planning in the new year.

Exposure opportunities exist in the print edition or combined with a myriad of digital marketing solutions as well.
