As face-to-face experiences come back online, #eventprofs are on the hunt for partners to deliver everything from socially-distant layouts to individually-portioned menu items that appeal to all attendees.

On the heels of the successful Virtual Event Guide, we're excited to debut the Event Safety Buyer's Guide—a comprehensive guide packed with essential partners and programs to ensure in-person (and hybrid!) experiences go off without a hitch.

Make your mark and help industry leaders across North America bring their vision to life with your groundbreaking products, services, and ideas, allowing us to safely gather again.

PROGRAM INCLUDES:

- A branded landing page outlining your offerings and safety measures, including photos, video, and other critical information
- Links directing to your website, email, and phone number
- Logo inclusion on marketing materials including emails, website, and other marketing collateral (where applicable)
- Social media shoutouts on BizBash social channels, reaching more than 317K #eventprofs[†]
- Exposure to the nearly 1.5M users^{††} exploring BizBash.com
