READY TO MEET IRL?

Join us at Connect Spring Marketplace as we unite the industry's most influential organizers in San Juan, Puerto Rico. This one-stop-shop event will give you unrestricted access to BizBash's esteemed network of #eventprofs so you can learn from and collaborate with the best in the business. Event tech leaders, top-flight event marketers and creators of thrilling experiential moments will join us to find partners like you for future event solutions. Our unique blend of networking opportunities, one-on-one match appointments and sponsorship opportunities will put you in front of your ideal clients in engaging and effective ways.

1:1 APPOINTMENTS

Think of it like business speed dating for event and meeting planners! Our innovative AI-powered system matches planners and suppliers for individual appointments based on their requests, as well as additional factors. Planners sit at designated tables with suppliers who are given 8 minutes to talk business and get to know one another. A chime signals the beginning and end of each appointment, when suppliers then have 2 minutes to rotate to their next appointment.

It's all happening May 22-24!
